March Meeting Highlights

March 24, 2010

Chamber Meetings - Continued good turn out at the monthly meetings. 17 were in attendance. New member, Steve Myer from the Sabbath Center near Lake Carroll joined us. The Chamber planning meeting had a very low turn out though.

Employee Appreciation Luncheon- Since no one stepped up to head up the event, it has been canceled for this year.

Position Letters- Again discussed sending a letter to the City Council addressing some concerns. In particular, members brought up the possible aesthetics of the retention pond that the City Purchased the land for.

Website- City Council approved $100 for 1/2 the cost of the new CMS software for the City and Chamber websites.

Carroll County Artisans Group - Lynn Collins Mt. Carroll Shop Hop will be April 9-11. A countywide Art Tour will be held on June 12.

Sesquicentennial Planning - 2011 will be Lanark's 150th anniversary. A kick off planning meeting will be held April 8th at 6:00 pm at the Sabbath Center. All are invited to come and give input into the celebration. The Center is across from Trailside on Zier Road.

VISTA - Chamber voted to give a $250 donation to the Blackhawk Hills RC&D VISTA project.

E & I Club - March 25, 6:30 @ the Heritage Center.

School District Drug Testing - Superintendent Mark Hansen answered questions a member had regarding drug testing procedures for those students involved in extra-curricular activities. He will get info from FHN on how the random names are selected to John H to pass along to the members.

Next meeting Wednesday April 21, 8am, Exchange State Bank.
